SOMERSPLASH WATER PARK is a cool place to spend hot summer days. The water park's 20 acres of safe family fun offer visitors a variety of water adventures, including slides, a giant wave pool and other pools designed to accommodate all ages.

101!

Discover more than 101 things to see and do on your next vacation getaway. WELCOME TO SOMERSET-PULASKI COUNTY, where each year millions of visitors come to Lake Cumberland from across the U.S. to relax and have fun in and out of the water. We're located within 300 miles of major cities in 11 states.

3

Looking for personal vacation or trip planning assistance? Call 1-800-642-6287 or stop by the Somerset-Pulaski County Convention & Visitors Bureau VISITOR CENTER located at 522 Ogden Street in Somerset. We have a wide variety of local, regional and state vacation information brochures to share.

4-5

BURNSIDE MARINA is located on the eastern side of Lake Cumberland and is known for its houseboat vacation rentals. Burnside and LEE'S FORD RESORT are both modern, full-service and well-equipped facilities offering boat slips and watercraft rentals on beautiful Lake Cumberland.

1 Keep Lake Cumberland at your fingertips by downloading the SOMERSET, KENTUCKY iPhone app from the iTunes App Store, or scan the QR code below for quick access. It includes events, places to stay and eat, a location map and much more.

At the base of nearby Wolf Creek Dam in Russell County, the Kentucky Department of Fish and Wildlife maintains the Wolf Creek National FISH HATCHERY where trout are raised to stock Lake Cumberland, more than 100 other Kentucky waterways and for the Cherokee Indian Tribe in North Carolina.

Lake Cumberland offers first-timers and trophy fishermen a variety of licensed and insured FISHING GUIDE SERVICES that pick up at local marinas.

8

It's no fish tale when we talk about Lake Cumberland fishermen bringing home a 58-POUND ROCKFISH, a 22-pound walleye or a catfish weighing an amazing 208 pounds! From Cumberland Falls to Wolf Creek Dam, Lake Cumberland is filled with crappie, bream, walleye, trout, catfish and five species of bass. Shoot for the record book anytime during the year-long fishing season.

14

ART IN THE VINEYARDS at Cedar Creek Vineyards features local wines, food, original oil and watercolor paintings, woodworking, stained glass, jewelry and more! Sponsored by Watershed Arts Alliance, the free admission event takes place in September. Cedar Creek Vineyards is located about 10 miles east of Somerset.

12

The CARNEGIE COMMUNITY ARTS CENTER is home to a wide variety of art shows and other community gatherings month after month. Several artists maintain working studios in the Carnegie and the Sheltoewe Artisans have a retail shop on the main floor. Call 1-606-677-0333.

17-18

The Center for Rural Development hosts the annual APPALACHIAN CRAFT FAIR in June and the SHELTOWEE ARTISANS ART FAIR in November. These events feature a diverse mixture of high-quality arts and crafts demonstrations and items for sale from throughout southern and eastern Kentucky.

13

Stop by the Somerset-Pulaski County Convention & Visitors Bureau Visitor Center to get your OFFICIAL LAKE CUMBERLAND BRANDED CLOTHING and merchandise. We're located at 522 Ogden Street in Somerset. Or call 1-800-642-6287.

Many ANTIQUE SHOPPING and FLEA MARKET adventures are a short drive from the lake and local accommodations. The largest antique mall has more than 150 booths with dealers from Kentucky, Michigan, Ohio and Tennessee. A wide variety of antiques and collectibles — furniture, glassware, primitives, Victorian, books, records, clocks, lamps and much more — await your discovery.

19

A houseboat vacation allows you to escape the rigors of everyday life in a beautiful setting and still enjoy the luxuries of home. HOUSEBOATS are available in a variety of sizes with amenities such as water slides and private state rooms.

20

At nearby historic Stearns, visit the BIG SOUTH FORK SCENIC RAILWAY, where you can take a 16-mile, round-trip train ride. The trip includes spectacular scenery as it descends into the gorge before stopping at the Blue Heron Coal Mining Camp, a NPS outdoor interpretive site.

22-24

SOMERBLAST is Somerset's annual 4th of July Fireworks Celebration held at SomerSplash Water Park. Adjoining SomerSplash is the SKATEBOARD PARK. Next door is the WARD CORRELL SPORTS COMPLEX, which includes four ball fields used for league and tournament games.

Listen 72

The MASTER MUSICIANS FESTIVAL is an annual mid-summer two-day concert that includes blues, jazz, bluegrass, folk, country, newgrass and gospel music. Performers such as Doc Watson, The Avett Brothers, Goosecreek Symphony, Nickel Creek and others have headlined the multi-cultural event in previous years. The festival also features an arts and crafts fair, food vendors and children's activities.

29

Lake Cumberland Performing Arts and THE CENTER FOR RURAL DEVELOPMENT bring everything from Broadway musicals to drama, ballet, comedy and classical music to the CenterStage season. Running throughout the year, performances like the Vienna Boys Choir, The Nutcracker and country music stars play in the 760-seat theater. The Center offers 35,000 sq. ft. of meeting and convention space. Call 1-606-677-6000.

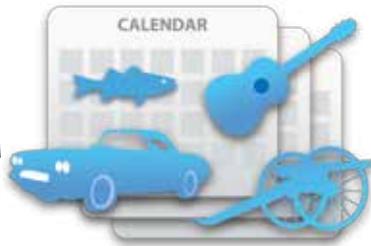

73

Somerset and Burnside continue to add a variety of unique nightlife spots. The CAPTAIN'S LOUNGE in downtown Somerset is one of the newer venues featuring live music from Nashville recording artists as well as regional talent.

30-71

Looking for even more Fun In And Out of the Water? Check out our LAKECUMBERLANDTOURISM.COM calendar. It is regularly updated with events — big and small, all year long. On Facebook search for "Lake Cumberland Tourism." Follow us on Twitter at #LCTourism.

Country music fans will appreciate a trip to RENFRO VALLEY, Kentucky's Country Music Capital and home of the world famous Barn Dance Show. Just 40 minutes from Somerset.

87

THE MILL SPRINGS BATTLEFIELD VISITOR CENTER and Museum in Nancy displays authentic Mill Springs Battlefield artifacts and other Civil War clothing and artifacts. The visitor center includes a Civil War reference library, a gift shop and a free 20-minute video on the history of the Battle of Mill Springs. Regular events include a weekend full of history and fun for the entire family held the fourth weekend in June. Learn about the Battle of Mill Springs, visit a Civil War camp and learn how to shoot a cannon. In the fall, participate in a Civil War camp ghost walk.

85

A self-guided, INTERPRETIVE WALKING TOUR of downtown Somerset leads you through part of its rich history. In addition to showing such places as the once-thriving Commercial District or the historic homes on Harvey's Hill, the tour gives insight into diverse aspects of life in Pulaski County, such as town beginnings, a Civil War Military Hospital and a turn-of-the-century trolley car system.

88

Travel south on U.S. 27, then east on Ky. 90 to Cumberland Falls State Park, located in the Daniel Boone National Forest. Known as the NIAGARA OF THE SOUTH, this picturesque falls is well worth the trip. There are also hiking trails, horseback riding and a variety of other activities available in the area.

Somerset Community College's LITTLE STONER THEATRE hosts a variety of local plays throughout the year, a Winter Shorts Film Festival in January, Sketches! An Evening of Short Comic Plays in April and a 48-hour film festival in August.

86

Kentucky artist Chris Ramsey and his woodturned hats have received national acclaim. Ramsey hosts beginner and master level WOODTURNING WORKSHOPS at his studio throughout the year. www.knot-head.com

89

Entertaining and professional, the guides at Sheltoewe Trace Outfitters (near Cumberland Falls) make WHITEWATER RAFTING, canoeing or kayaking on the forks of the Cumberland River an outdoor water adventure worth remembering. Large and small groups can be accommodated with a variety of trips that are seasonal and skill-level appropriate.

92

The EAGLE SCOUT TRAIL at Pulaski County Park is a hiking and biking trail nestled in the beautiful Kentucky hills. While hiking, enjoy a series of bridges, including a suspension bridge over Porter Creek that you have to see to believe. If mountain biking is your sport, then you'll love the IMBA Spec 5-mile portion of the trail.

93

The Annual Clear Channel-Lake Cumberland ZOMBIE WALK in downtown Somerset brings out thousands of costumed "undead" for the official walk through the streets, as well as an audience-wide "Thriller" dance. The all-day October event features live music, a film, vendors and more.

91

Be part of the annual Lake Cumberland Raft-Up in August. In 2010, the first raft-up achieved a GUINNESS BOOK OF WORLD RECORDS ranking. At least one person on each boat is connected to another by ropes, cords or cables, and the structure remains connected for at least a minute. The final tally of 1,651 boats, was comprised of vacationers from 20 different states, and the District of Columbia.

SOMERSET AND BURNSIDE
RESTAURANTS SERVE UP PLENTY TO

Savor

96-97 Before heading back home, don't forget to try a big plate of delicious catfish at the HARBOR RESTAURANT or GUTHRIE'S RESTAURANT. Both fine dining establishments offer enticing views overlooking the lake.

94

Savor a bite of Somerset history at one of the county's oldest eateries when you buy "Doughnuts Divine" at family-owned AMON'S SUGAR SHACK. Featured in Southern Living, join locals and visitors alike as they return time and time again for the sweets Pulaski County residents have been enjoying for more than 60 years.

98

Start your day with a hot cup of coffee or a chilly smoothie from BAXTER'S. This popular, locally owned coffee shop roasts its own coffee beans. Its two Somerset locations make Baxter's convenient whether you're north or south of town.

Want to take a gift or souvenir of food home with you? HANEY'S APPLEDALE FARM just east of Nancy offers a wide variety of apples and other produce well into autumn. Apple cider and fried apple pies are also available seasonally.

99

95

The smell of grilled onions wafting from a side street in downtown Somerset reminds passersby that a sack of hot HOLSOMBACK'S hamburgers is waiting just around the corner. This hole-in-the-wall lunch spot has been a local tradition since the 1950s.
